Dr. MacGregor's Able Discourse a Baptist Church Sunday Night. Rev. Dr. Malcolm MacGregor, the cangel sto Atlanta, Ga. who has been conducting revival services in the Eaptist church for the past week, spoke for MacGregor delivered a special address to the children of the Sunday school, which was highly interesting and instructive. At 11 o'clock be preached an able sermon and at 4 P. M. the addressed the men of Hampton under the anspices of the Y. M. C. A. taken the drew many reasons which men which he drew many reasons win men should chose. God as their Savior. At the night meeting which began at 1230 o'clock Dr. MacGregor's sermon away expecially directed to the young men. Taking as his subject, Psalm, 119-9: "Wherewithal shall a groung man ing to the word." The speaker delivered one of the ablest discourses ever heard in the Baptist church, if not in Hampton. As a preface to his remarks the speaker went into history and from the time that Nepoleon, when at the age of years, won the great catnager in the considered at some length the necessity of young men cleansing themselves, claiming Byron. Burns and several others.

He then considered at some length the necessity of young men cleansing than the Baptist church, if not in during the proposed of the content of the con

Cregor, was the strongest trait in man and he should do all in his power to have nobility of heart taught by God's word. In closing his remarks the speaker made a masterly, strong and cloquent appeal to all young men to commit themselves to Jesus' keeping. He predicted that if every young man in his hearing would come out boldly for Christ, Hampton would be revolutionized, and it was also in the young man's power to revolutionize the world. With the admenition to all men to take as their motto, "Before beginning anythin consider the end," the pastor closed his interesting sermon.

be one of the largest plants of its kind in the state. The present power house will be turned into a car house, in which all the cars on the line will be stabled when they are not in service. Superintendent H. H. Carr, in speaking of the new structure, said last inght, that it was the purpose of his company in erecting the new power house to make it an up-to-date plant in every particular.

This is, perhaps, the largest contract ever given by a firm in Hampton and when the fact that $107.392 is to be expended in the work is taken into consideration, it will mean a great deal to Hampton in every respect, as quite a number of laborers will be enabled to receive employment.

The building committee of the Bank of Hampton has awarded the contract for the placing in of the large vault in their new banking house, which is to refer the placing in of the large vault in their new banking house, which is to receive from a firm in Hampton and burglar proof, and affording the bank one of the safest deposit vaults that can be had. It will be in every way strictly modern and up to date. The contract a number of laborers will be enabled to receive employment.

The material to be used is to consist of heavy iron and hard bricks.

the action of the grand jury yesterday by Justice J. W. Richardson upon the charge of assaulting Cora Johnson, also an inmate of the poorhouse. The trouble took place Saturday night, when it is said Andrews unmercifully beat the woman, whom he claimed was annoying to him in many ways. The woman alleges that Andrews made improper overtures to her and upon her refusal to obey him he assaulted her. Both parties are colored.

LINCOLN, NEB., Oct. 23.—Colonel W.
J. Bryan arrived in Lincoln tonight and after three hours' rest started for Strousburg where he will begin his two weeks of speechmaking in Nebraska.

He said he was confident of being able to conclude is campaign as scheduled,
as his health was much improved. Mr.
Bryan said his long tour in Nebraska has no special significance. He had in the past neglected his home state and he was simply redeeming promises of speeches made long ago.
